

Job Title: CT Technologist
Department: Imaging
Classification: Non-Exempt
Reports to: 1. Director of Imaging
2. CEO/President

Summary

The position is responsible for producing high quality images for screening and/or diagnosis for specified patient population. The technologist must be able to operate all technical X-ray and CT equipment to produce diagnostic radiographs for the Radiologists' interpretation. The technologist must be able to perform all routine and emergency CT scans.

Essential Functions

- Responsible for all diagnostic x-ray equipment operation and calibration processes.
- Explains procedure to patient before starting exam
- Prepares and positions patient correctly for specific examinations
- Reads orders and the suspected pathology to make sure the correct tests are performed.
- Accurately produces quality radiographs and CT images
- Maintains skills in the treatment and care for all patients and understand techniques for different ages.
- Demonstrates adherence to radiation safety policies and procedures in daily practice. Consults with the radiation safety officer regarding radiation safety issues.
- Performs other duties as assigned by the Imaging Director.

Education/Experience

- High School Diploma or equivalent
- Satisfactory completion of formal radiologic technology training in an AMA approved school and ability to meet requirements for the registry by the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT) Radiologic Technologist or equivalent
- Must be a registered Radiologic Technologist or registry eligible and pass the registry within one year of hire
- Cannot be on probation from ARRT more than once
- On-the-job CT training
- Current BLS

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities

- Required to maintain absolute confidentiality of patient care, patient accounts and hospital related matters.
- Required to abide by, and comply with, the provisions of the TAH Corporate Compliance Policy.
- Required to utilize positive Guest Relations principles in all interactions with patients, families, peers, and all members of the healthcare team.

- Required to establish and maintain the ability to communicate effectively both verbally and in writing with a variety of socioeconomic, religious and culturally diverse populations of patients, clients, families and the general public in order to gain confidence and cooperation and to establish and maintain contact with facility staff and others.
- Required to abide by, and comply with, established Departmental and TAH policies, procedures and standards.
- Required to establish and maintain abilities, knowledge and skills necessary to comply with and function within the scope of and remain up-to-date regarding current legislation, rules, regulations and standards regarding release of medical/patient information.
- Required to establish and maintain acceptable level of attendance.
- Required to perform the duties of the position in a safe and efficient manner.
- Required to assist in maintaining the cleanliness of the work areas.
- Ability to remain calm and perform effectively during critical/emergency situations.
- Ability to adapt to a wide range of physical and emotional situations and to seek assistance in the application of procedures sufficient to overcome problems.

Work Environment

Work is primarily performed in a normal environment with cool temperatures and little exposure to noise or dust. May be exposed to potential hazards such as electrical and radiant energy. May also be exposed to chemical wastes, body wastes, fluids and other possible infectious material.

Physical demands include: Constant lifting/carrying and pushing/pulling up to 50 pounds; balancing, bending, reaching, handling, feeling and keyboarding; Frequent walking, stooping, kneeling, crouching and grasping; Occasional lifting/carrying and pushing/pulling 51 to 100+ pounds, Crawling, fine manipulation and overhead lifting.

Positions Supervised

None